Description :

PDF-0fdd1 | The Joint Committee on Taxation estimates that in 2004 U.S. corporations will use the research credit and R&D expensing to reduce their tax liabilities by 9.2 billion dollars. The perception used to be that the high-tech sector was the only heir to this tax fortune. But the Treasury Department liberalized the rules, as reflected in the 2001 proposed regulations, and now even traditional manufactur... Practical Guide to Research and Development Tax Incentives: Federal, State, and Foreign (2nd Edition)
