Description :

PDF-ff0b8 | Excerpt from School Architecture: Principles and Practices When the necessity for a comprehensive book of this kind was realized by the writer, it was his first intention to offer a treatise on the planning of school buildings, written wholly from the architect's point of view. After a few months of effort it dawned upon him that in order to make the most thorough use of such information, it would... School Architecture: Principles and Practices (Classic Reprint)
